

Just a closer walk...

A day of celebration and service

The Episcopal Diocese of Michigan Commemorates
ABSALOM JONES, RICHARD ALLEN & JEHU JONES

*The Rev. Absalom Jones was the first African-American priest ordained in the Episcopal Church.
The Rev. Richard Allen was first bishop and founder of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.
The Rev. Jehu Jones, Jr. was the first African-American pastor ordained in the Lutheran Church.*

11:00 a.m. Holy Communion

Saturday, February 18, 2017

The Cathedral Church of St. Paul
4800 Woodward Ave, Detroit MI
Reception to follow the service.

The Rev. Yolanda Whiten, Preacher

Pastor Whiten is the pastor of St. James A.M.E Church in Brighton, MI and President & CEO of Ann Arbor Community Center, which provides programs and services that promote self-reliance, social and economic well-being, diversity and community involvement.

Please bring non-perishable food items to be donated to

CROSSROADS OF MICHIGAN